PART 1: INTERVIEW & PERSONAL PROFILE

Timing: 2–3 Min. • Warm-Up

General Conversation & Personal Background

Individual Interview

The examiner will ask you general questions about yourself, your studies, your hometown, and your interests.

- Hometown & Living: Can you describe the town or area where you live? What do you like best about it?
- Studies & Daily Routine: What subjects or fields of study are you most passionate about? How do you organize your typical weekday?
- Free Time & Activities: What hobbies or sports do you enjoy when you are not studying?
- English Language Goals: Why is learning English important for your future education and career plans?

PART 2: INDIVIDUAL LONG TURN (VISUAL PROMPT & MONOLOGUE)

Timing: 3–4 Min. • Monologue (~1.5 min speaking)

Thematic Comparison: "Modern Learning Environments – Technology vs. Traditional Classrooms"

Candidate Task Card

Look at the two learning situations below. Describe what you see, compare how students learn in each environment, and explain which method suits you best.

Situation A: Digital & Online Learning

- Students working collaboratively with laptops and smart tablets.
- Flexible self-paced research, interactive simulations, and digital resources.
- Distance learning from home or modern tech-equipped study hubs.
- Instant connectivity with teachers and peers globally.

Key themes: Independence, flexibility, digital literacy, self-motivation.

Situation B: Traditional Face-to-Face Classroom

- Students seated together in a physical classroom with books and teacher at board.
- Direct face-to-face interaction, immediate verbal feedback, structured timetable.
- Quiet study atmosphere in libraries without screen distractions.
- Developing social relationships and active group discussions in person.

Key themes: Focus, direct human contact, discipline, immediate guidance.

Points to address during your talk:

- Describe & Compare: What are the main similarities and differences between the two study styles?
- Pros & Cons: What are the advantages and drawbacks of studying with screens versus studying in person?
- Personal Preference: Which style do you personally find more effective for learning languages and school subjects? Why?

PART 3: COLLABORATIVE TASK (SIMULATION & NEGOTIATION)

Timing: 3–4 Min. • Paired Discussion

Scenario: Organizing an International Youth & Culture Festival at ILAS

Interactive Task

Your institute is planning a special "International Youth & Culture Festival" to encourage students to practice English and bring the local community together. Here are some activities that have been suggested.
Your task: Talk together with your partner about how interesting and useful each activity would be for students. Then, decide which TWO activities would be the most successful to include in the festival programme.

INTERNATIONAL YOUTH & CULTURE FESTIVAL

Live Music & Talent Concert
Students perform acoustic songs in English, rap, or play traditional instruments. Fun atmosphere.

Global Street Food Fair
Food stalls with dishes from Morocco, the UK, the USA, and other cultures. Highly popular.

English Trivia & Escape Game
Teams solve language puzzles, trivia questions, and riddles to win prizes. Educational & engaging.

Virtual Reality (VR) Zone
VR headsets showcasing digital tours of London, New York, and interactive language games.

Guest Speaker & Debate
An inspiring guest speaker shares their international career journey followed by a student Q&A.

Photography & Art Gallery
Displaying student creative photos and artwork with bilingual English/Arabic descriptions.

PART 4: EXTENDED DISCUSSION & CRITICAL THINKING

Timing: 3–4 Min. • Interactive Q&A

Follow-up Discussion on Cultural Exchange & Youth Opportunities

Discussion with Examiners

- Cultural Exchange: Why is it important for young people today to learn about other cultures and world traditions?
- Community Events: What kinds of public events or festivals are most popular among teenagers in Morocco?
- Career Readiness: In your opinion, how does speaking fluent English open doors for international university scholarships and jobs?
- Organizing Challenges: What difficulties can arise when organizing a large public event, and how can a team solve them?

Top Examiner Tips for ANASS BENYAHIA:

• Fluency over perfection: Don't freeze if you make a small grammar mistake; simply rephrase and keep talking.
• Show your vocabulary: Use specific adjectives (e.g., rewarding, interactive, demanding, essential) instead of just good or nice.
• Listen actively: Respond directly to what the examiner or partner says before moving to your own thoughts.
